DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment presented in communication filed November 10, 2003 as Paper No. 14 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Knapp. Knapp shows a dispenser having a lower chamber and an upper chamber (the chambers are separated by cover 15 as can be seen in the figure), a first electrically powered solenoid valve 17, second electrically powered solenoid valve 25, first water line 16, and second water line 22.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Zuriel in view of Combs et al.

Zuriel shows a dispenser having a lower chamber 18, upper chamber 17, first valve 25 and second valve 24. Zuriel discloses that the valves are operated in a known manner per se but does not disclose that manner as being electrically powered solenoid valves. Combs shows another dispenser having solenoid-operated valves 31, 32, so as to provide automated operation. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have made the valves of Zuriel solenoid valves as suggested by Combs so as to operate the valves remotely and automatically.

6. Claims 1-6, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Buchan et al. in view of Davis et al. or Combs.

Buchan et al. shows a dispenser having upper chamber (designated as the portion of the container above element 15) and a lower portion designated as the portion below element 15, first valve 88, second valve 96, first water line 80 and second water line 92. Buchan et al. does not show the valves operated by solenoids. Both Combs and Davis et al. show devices having valves that can be operated electrically by solenoids (53 and 70 respectively). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have made the valves of Buchan et al. as solenoid valves so that the device can be operated both remotely and automatically as suggested by both Combs and Davis et al. (see column 10, lines 10-35 and column 6, lines 2-7, respectively) so as to have a device that requires little or no operator intervention.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 7 and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. Claims 16-18 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Wittig shows a device in the general state of the art of the invention.

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
